From:	Ralph, Daniel
To:	All Faculty; Academic Staff DL
Cc:	Sermonti, Anthony; Quarandillo, Ann Mary; Balsam, Jessica
Subject:	Fall Faculty Update 5
Date:	Monday, November 20, 2006 9:51:08 AM

Ariel Goldberger
Ariel was invited to perform a section of his show DArK EArTH in the Carnival of Samhaim Festival at the Abrons Art Center in New York's Lower east side on November 3rd and 4th. A photo of his puppets was published in the Performing Arts Section "Pics of the Week" in the Village Voice.

Ariel also produced his show DArK EArTH at the Seattle Center in October. Reviews of his work appeared in the Seattle Times, Seattle Weekly and the Seattle Post Intelligencer.

Erik Thuessen
Erik attended the International Steering Committee Meeting of the Census of Marine Zooplankton (http://www.cmarz.org/) in Tokyo, Japan, Nov. 6th-8th. He gave two presentations at the meeting: "Training student parataxonomists for marine zooplankton biodiversity investigations" and "Undiscovered treasures in your backyard: Diversity and phylogeny of gelatinous zooplankton in the deep eastern Pacific". His participation as a member of the CMarZ Steering Committee is funded by the A.P. Sloan Foundation.