From:	Ralph, Daniel
To:	All Faculty; Academic Staff DL
Cc:	Sermonti, Anthony; Balsam, Jessica
Subject:	Spring Faculty Update 4
Date:	Thursday, June 08, 2006 4:47:34 PM

Bill Ransom
Bill spoke and did readings at the Skagit River Poetry Festival in LaConner on May 18th-20th, and at the Peace Alliance Conference at Harmony Hills May 26-27. (The Peace Alliance Conference was convened to propose a U.S. Department of Peace.) Also, several of Bill's translations (with Ying Qin) of the Chinese poet De-An Lu appear in the online journal "Fascicle."

For more information about the Peace Alliance, please follow this link:

http://www.thepeacealliance.org/content/view/125/

Jeanne Hahn
Jeanne presented a talk and participated in a panel on "Globalization in India," hosted at the Georgia Perimeter College in Atlanta, on May 1st. Jeanne will be teaching the "India: Politics of Dance; Dance of Politics" program with Ratna Roy this coming Fall and Winter.

Michael Vavrus
Michael published "Teacher Identity Formation in a Multicultural World: Intersections of Autobiographical Research and Critical Pedagogy," on pages 89-133 of Self-study and Diversity, Tidwell & L. Fitzgerald (Eds.), Sense Publishers, the Netherlands.

Information about the book, and a pdf version of it, are available for viewing at:
http://www.sensepublishers.com/books/pler/pler.htm#90-77874-09-7

(You will be required to register with the site, and agree not to print the material, in order to download and view the pdf.)