Dear Chamber Singers:

As you already know, there will not be any rehearsals this week.

I wanted to thank you for a good performance at the dedication and let you know how great you all looked.

The reason for my not doing the Alleluia was that the program was going on longer than expected due to the extra vinettes. I could sense some people tiring with the whole thing and decided to cut it short. Hope you didn't mind.

From all the press releases that I have seen, and from all the comments that I have heard, there have been nothing but good remarks. You all looked great on TV. Someone really liked Sue Mylton.

This note actually is written in gratitude to Bobbi Schmitz. Without her help, we couldn't have made it costume wise. I don't think some of you know this, but Bobbi must have spent between 5-10 hrs. on the phone trying to find places that would costume us for a reasonable price. And if costumes didn't fit or didn't look very good, place the blame on the costumer. Of course this doesn't take into account driving down to Portland and back to Portland to pick up and return these items. Anyway, I thought it might be nice to thank her for the time and energy as well as a great job she did for us.

So much from the head of Chan's Chanters

See you May 2, Tuesday, 9:30 p.m.

Love you all,

Donald
