

The Evergreen State College
Master of Environmental Studies
Graduate Student Association presents

The Eleventh Annual

Rachel Carson Forum

Marion Moses, M.D.

FIGHTING FOR POSITIVE SOCIAL CHANGE AND ENVIRONMENTAL JUSTICE

Dr. Moses is president of the Pesticide Education Center in San Francisco. She was also César Chavez's personal physician and now devotes much of her time and work to helping farmworkers. Dr. Moses is responsible for bringing to national and international attention the adverse health effects associated with the use of agricultural pesticides.

Thursday, May 4, 2000 at 6 p.m.
The Evergreen State College Longhouse
Free and open to the public

Co-sponsored by: Master in Environmental Studies Program, MECHA, S&A Special Initiatives Fund, President's Diversity Fund and the Unified Graduate Student Association