WHO GAVE?
WHO GOT?
HOW MUCH?

Campaign financing of The 44th Washington State Legislature, 1974-1975.

by JOLENE UNSOELD  Foreword by Marvin B. Durning

$2
WHO GAVE?
WHO GOT?
HOW MUCH?

Assumptions Underlying This Report:

1. The 2000 hours spent on its preparation were insufficient to insure total accuracy.
2. More hours would have eliminated some of these errors.
3. Total accuracy is unattainable due to confusion of original records and discrepancies between the reports made by contributors and recipients.
4. Accuracy over-all is estimated as within 1%.

So, with sincere apologies for those embarrassing errors which I am sure have been inadvertently included—and with a keen awareness of the sheer gall required to offer such a report to the public at all—I submit it to you as at least a first approximation of the kind of summary which must be produced in the future if Initiative 276 is eventually to do the job for which it was designed.

JOLENE UNSOELD
February 16, 1975
12 D. in Senate '74 election

8 were actively supported or not opposed by U.P.W.
4 were actively opposed

60 Democrats in House '74 election:

43 only opposed
21/25/74 of Caucus

15 actively opposed
Demo group blasts 'immorality' of 'purchase' of Senate leadership

By ERIK LACITIS

The liberal Metropolitan Democratic Club yesterday said it viewed with "shame and anger" the "immorality" it said took place in the "purchase of votes." The Democratic club said all the senators in that caucus who voted for Mardesich should be censured "for partaking in this scheme for selling the leadership." The government must do the same thing when it has received from his late law associate, Archie Baker.

Big Business And Olympia

BY MIKE LAYTON

OLYMPIA — Contributors to United for Washington on, the big business political fund-raiser, have been OLYMPIA — Contributors to United for Washington on, the big business political fund-raiser, have been

Evans campaign got $2,500 from state offices