

Introduction to Natural Science

Presentation Rubric

Name of Presenters:

Name of Person Giving Feedback:

Title of Presentation:

Your understanding of the main topic:

Circle all the appropriate boxes and add comments when needed

	Novice	Apprentice	Proficient	Distinguished	Comments
Organization	Audience cannot understand presentation because there is no sequence of information .	Audience has difficulty following the presentation because the sequence of information is haphazard	The group presents information in a logical sequence , which the audience can follow.	The group presents information in a logical and interesting sequence which the audience can follow.
Content Knowledge	Members of the group do not have an understanding of the topic; They cannot answer any questions .	Some members of the group are uncomfortable with the topic and are only able to answer rudimentary questions .	Most members of the group are at ease with content , but do not always elaborate on questions .	All students in the group demonstrate full knowledge with explanations and elaboration .
Supporting Material	Student used no graphs, figures, statistics or data	Student occasional used graphs figures statistics or data, but not effectively .	Student used graphs, figures, data and statistics effectively	Student used graphs, figures, data and statistics in a compelling and informative way
Mechanics	The material was illegible, contained many errors and/or was presented too quickly to see .	The material was legible , but, contained some errors or too much information to read at the pace of the presentation.	The material was easy to read , had few errors and was presented at a pace that was easy to follow	The material was easy to read, and organized well, with no errors . Presented at pace that maintained interest in the subject.
Delivery	Presenters mumble, and speak too quietly for students in the back of class to hear. Lack enthusiasm or interest . No eye contact, read directly from notes . Members of the group do not interact at all .	Presenters occasionally speak too quietly . Lack energy . Infrequent eye contact and rely heavily on notes . Members of the group interact ineffectively . Some members dominate .	Presenters speak clearly and show interest Make eye contact regularly with some of the audience . Members of the group interact well and share the delivery equally.	Presenters speak clearly and show enthusiasm . Hold attention by direct eye contact with all parts of the audience . Members of the group interact dynamically as a group in a way that enhances understanding and clarity.

Additional Comments (Use back if needed):