Acknowledgments

The Killer Whale art is by Joe Wilson, a talented young Coast Salish artist. Born and raised at Koksilah, near Duncan on Vancouver Island, British Columbia, Canada, he began his interest in art in elementary school. His work speaks of confidence and strength and he has developed a unique and original style. His work is not only authentic by native tradition, it is also an artistic communication link between cultures.

The Killer Whale is one of the most prominent symbols of the North West Coast people. Traditional legends empower the Killer Whale with extraordinary powers which were to be respected and admired. The Killer Whale was a major influence on the Salish people in that the pods of whales could scare away the life-giving salmon. The presence of these creatures in local waters meant that fish would be scarce for awhile.

Thanks also to Peggy Ojala for her work in compiling and coordinating this directory and selection of the artwork and to Daniel Shephard for his help in coordinating the cover.

The Evergreen State College campus directory is produced and distributed from the Telecommunications Office. It is printed by Tumwater Printing on recycled paper. All suggestions for future enhancements or improvements are welcome. Please direct them to Donna Johnson, Library 2408 or call extension 6315.
