

	TESC	Model	Lewis &amp; Clark	Boise State	PSU
Disrupting college functions	Intentionally, recklessly and/or persistently interfering with normal college or college-sponsored activities, including but not limited to studying, teaching, research, college administration, fire, police, emergency services, or public safety	Disruption or obstruction of teaching, research, administration, disciplinary proceedings, other College activities, including its public service functions on or off campus, or of other authorized non-College activities when the conduct occurs on College premises.	engaging in disorderly or disruptive conduct on College premises or at College sponsored activities, which interferes with the activities of others, including studying, teaching, research, and College administration.	May include, but is not limited to, any behavior that disrupts or obstructs any University activity, including but not limited to teaching, research, administration, proceedings, recreational activities, guest speaker presentations, and cultural events. It includes any behavior that causes a substantial disruption to the living or learning environment of the campus. Disorderly conduct may include disruptive noises or strong odors that can be reasonably traced to a specific individual or location, and may include the unauthorized use of electronic or other devices to make an audio and/or visual record of any person without his/her prior knowledge and content when such a recording is likely to cause distress or injury.	Obstruction or disruption of teaching, research, administration, disciplinary procedures or other University activities, including the University's public service functions or other authorized activities on University Premises, or any other location where teaching, research, administration, disciplinary procedures or other University Sponsored Activities take place.
Academic dishonesty	Cheating, facilitating academic dishonesty and plagiarism ... if persistent or severe may be treated as violations of the Code	Acts of dishonesty, including but not limited to the following: a. cheating, plagiarism, or other forms of academic dishonesty. b. Furnishing false information to any College official, faculty member, or office. C. Forgery, alteration, or misuse of any College document, record, or instrument of	Separate policy	Lengthy definition  May include cheating, plagiarism, or other forms of academic dishonesty. All assignments submitted by a student must represent her/his own ideas, concepts, and current understanding or must cite the original source. Academic dishonesty includes assisting a student to cheat plagiarize, or commit any act of dishonesty. Academic	All forms of academic dishonesty, cheating, and fraud, including but not limited to: (a) plagiarism, which includes, but is not limited to, word for word copying, using borrowed words or phrases from original text into new patterns without attribution, or paraphrasing another writer's ideas; (b) The buying and selling of all or any portion of course assignments and research papers; (c) Performing academic identification.		dishonesty includes turning in substantial portions of the same academic work to more than one course without the prior permission of the faculty members.	assignments (including tests and examinations) for other persons; (d) Unauthorized disclosure and receipt of academic information; and (e) Falsification of research data.

	TESC	Model	Lewis &amp; Clark	Boise State	PSU
Destroying or damaging property	Intentionally, recklessly and or persistently destroying or damaging college property or the property of others on college premises or at college-sponsored events		intentionally or recklessly destroying or damaging personal or College property.	MIBINLT destruction, damage, or misuse of University or private property	Malicious damage, misuse or theft of University property, or the property of any other person where such property is located on University-owned or controlled property, or, regardless of location, is in the care, custody or control of the University.
Drugs	Using, possessing, or distributing of any controlled substance or illegal drug on college premises or at college-sponsored activities (as defined in the Uniform Controlled Substances Act Chapter 69.50 RCW as amended). Public appearance on campus or at any college-sponsored event while under the influence of illegal drugs.	Use, possession, manufacturing, or distribution of marijuana, heroin, narcotics, or other controlled substances except as expressly permitted by law.	violation of College policies on possession, distribution or use of alcohol or other illegal drugs, controlled substances, or drug paraphernalia.	May include, but is not limited to the possession, manufacture, distribution, use, or sale of drugs or drug paraphernalia and narcotics classified as illegal, except those taken under a doctor's prescription. This is prohibited on University-owned or -controlled property, in University housing, and/or at any University-sponsored or -supervised function. Disruptive behavior exhibited as the result of the use of a drug is prohibited campus-wide even if a drug was consumed elsewhere. A violation may occur if the odor of a drug is present when it can reasonably be traced to a specific individual or location by more than one individual. Members of the University	Illegal use, possession or distribution of drugs on University-owned or -controlled property.

	TESC	Model	Lewis &amp; Clark	Boise State	PSU
				community will adhere to all state and federal laws with regard to illegal substances.
False accusations	Intentionally making false charges against another member of the college community to harass, harm, defame and/or intimidate that individual
False Alarms	Intentionally causing a false police or fire alarm that involves college property or a college-sponsored event
False information	Intentionally providing false information to the college for the purpose of gaining admission or employment or to avoid determination of facts in accordance with any college investigation or hearing		Making, possessing, or using any forged, altered, or falsified instrument of identification or College document intentionally furnishing false information or reports to the College.	MIBINLT willful falsification of official records or documents, or omission with the intent to deceive. Falsification of University Records includes, but is not limited to, the forgery, alteration, or misuse of University documents, records, academic record change forms, fee receipts, identification cards, meal tickets, parking permits, financial aid forms, telephone billing cards, and ASBSU forms or documents. Violations also may include computer tampering. MIBNLT misrepresentation of identity as a member of the University for dishonest purposes, either on or off University premises, including but not limited to, claiming faculty, staff, official, or student status to which an	Furnishing false or misleading information to the University, including but not limited to knowingly failing to provide required information to the University or misrepresenting a person's identity to a Course Instructor or University Official. Forgery, alteration or unauthorized use of University documents, records, identification or resources.

	TESC	Model	Lewis & Clark	Boise State	PSU
Harm/harassment	Discriminating against, sexually harassing, and threatening or intimidating against another person by word or gesture, or physically molesting or assaulting another person which substantially harms or causes reasonable apprehension of such harm to that person or which is intended to harm him or her. This includes, but is not limited to, physical, psychological or sexual harm/harassment or harassment based on religion, nationality, ability/disability, gender, sexual orientation, racial or ethnic origin, cultural identity or political affiliation. This provision is intended to protect members of the community against damage or threat of damage to property and injury or threat of injury to physical person or psychological well-being.	Physical abuse, verbal abuse, threats, intimidation, harassment, coercion, and/or other conduct which threatens or endangers the health or safety of any person.	intentionally or recklessly causing physical or mental harm to any person, or intentionally or recklessly causing reasonable apprehension of such harm.  harassment or sexual misconduct.	individual is not entitled.  May include conduct towards another person or group of persons including, but not limited to: 1. unwelcome comments or other behavior that unreasonably interferes with an individual's work, academic performance, or living conditions, or participation in a University activity; 2. unwelcome comments or other behavior that creates an intimidating, hostile, or offensive environment for that individual's work, education , living conditions, or participation in a University activity; 3. retaliation against any person filing a conduct complaint or against any person participating in the conduct process; 4. implied or stated threats of violence.  Physical assault – a violation may include, but is not limited to: 1. unwanted physical contact; 2. use of violence and/or fighting.	Harassment which includes but is not limited to: (a) verbal or physical conduct by an individual based on another individual's age, ability, national origin, race, marital status, religion, sex or sexual orientation that interferes or prevents the person from conducting his or her usual affairs, puts the person in fear of his or her safety, or causes the person to suffer physical injury; or (b) conduct less than a physical attack or interference with a person, such as hazing or threatening action, which is intended to subject another person to offensive physical contact, physical injury, property damage, or cause physical impact, such as making threatening phone calls, sending or posting (electronically or otherwise) threatening letters, or the vandalism or misappropriation of a person's property.  Detention or physical abuse of any person or conduct which is intended to threaten imminent bodily harm or endanger the health of any person on University-owned or - controlled property.
Hazing	According to chapter 28B.10 RCW hazing is	Defined as an act which endangers the mental or	hazing, as defined in the	May include, but is not limited to, any act that endangers the	Hazing, defined as conduct which subjects a person to

	TESC	Model	Lewis &amp; Clark	Boise State	PSU
	defined as any method of initiation into a student organization or living group, or any pastime or amusement engaged in with respect to such an organization or living group that causes, or is likely to cause, bodily danger or physical harm, or serious mental or emotional harm.	physical health or safety of a student, or which destroys or removes public or private property, for the purpose of initiation, admission in to, affiliation with , or as a condition for continued membership in, a group or organization. The express or implied consent of the victim will not be a defense. Apathy or acquiescence in the presence of hazing are not neutral acts; they are violations of this rule.	College's hazing policy.	mental or physical health or safety of a student, for the purpose of initiation, admission into, affiliation with, or as a condition for continued membership in, a group or organization. It includes, but is not limited to, any behavior that may endanger an individual's physical safety or produce physical, emotional, or psychological discomfort, fright, humiliation, and/or embarrassment, whether it is intentional or unintentional. The express or implied consent of the victim will not be considered a defense. Apathy or acquiescence in the presence of hazing are not neutral acts; they are violations of this section.	bodily danger or physical harm or to the likelihood of bodily danger or physical harm, or to require, authorize or permit that the person be subjected to such conduct or act for the purpose of initiation, admission into, affiliation with, or as a condition for continued membership in a student group or organization.
Housing contract violations	Violation of residence hall contracts.
Interfering with the adjudicative process	Harassment of students, faculty or staff involved in the adjudicative process. Violation of any agreement made during the adjudicative process, including but not limited to no-contact orders. Perjury or retaliatory or disruptive behavior will also be grounds for further disciplinary action.	Abuse of the Student Conduct System, including but not limited to: a. Failure to obey the notice from a Student Conduct Board or College official to appear for a meeting or hearing as part of the Student Conduct system. B. Falsification, distortion, or misrepresentation of information before a Student Conduct Board.	abuse of the student conduct process, including but not limited to harassment and/or intimidation of a member of a conduct review board or any participant prior to, during and/or after a student conduct proceeding.  knowingly violating the terms of any conduct sanction imposed in accordance with this Code .		Abuse of the University conduct program as outlined in this Code, including but not limited to: (a) falsification, distortion or misrepresentation of information before any conduct body; (b) knowingly initiating any conduct proceedings without cause; (c) attempting to discourage an individual's participation in, or use of, any conduct system; or (d) influencing or attempting to influence another person to commit an abuse of any

	TESC	Model	Lewis &amp; Clark	Boise State	PSU
		C. Disruption or interference with the orderly conduct of a Student Conduct Board proceeding. D. Institution of a student conduct code proceeding in bad faith. E. Attempting to discourage an individual's proper participating in, or use of, the student conduct system. F. Attempting to influence the impartiality of a member of a Student Conduct Board prior to, and/or during the course of, the Student Conduct Board proceeding. H. Failure to comply with the sanction(s) imposed under the Student Code I. Influencing or attempting to influence another person to commit an abuse of the student conduct code system.			conduct system. A violation of any sanctions imposed as a result of previous disciplinary proceedings under the Code. Inciting others to engage in any of the conduct or to perform any of the acts prohibited in this Code. Inciting means that advocacy of proscribed conduct that calls upon the person or persons addressed for imminent action, and is coupled with a reasonable apprehension of imminent danger to the functions and purposes of the University, including the safety of persons, and the protection of its property
Liquor	Use, possession, or distribution of liquor on college property. This is not intended to apply to use by students of legal age in a residence or at a college-sponsored event provided the event has a approved alcoholic beverage banquet permit (Chapter 174-157	Use, possession, manufacturing, or distribution of alcoholic beverages (except as expressly permitted by College regulations), or public intoxication. Alcoholic beverages may not, in any circumstance, be used	violation of College policies on possession, distribution or use of alcohol or other illegal drugs, controlled substances, or drug paraphernalia.	May include but is not limited to possession, consumption, or distribution of alcoholic beverages. This is prohibited in University-owned, or – operated facilities and on campus grounds unless otherwise allowed by a University policy. Disruptive behavior exhibited as the	Illegal use and abuse of alcohol and the use of illegal drugs which includes any behavior that constitutes a violation of the University Alcohol and Other Drugs Policy.

	TESC	Model	Lewis &amp; Clark	Boise State	PSU
	WAC) However, public appearance on campus or at any college-sponsored event while intoxicated, as defined by law, will be considered a violation.	by, possessed by or distributed to any person under twenty-one (21) years of age.		result of consumed alcohol is prohibited campus-wide even if the alcohol was consumed elsewhere. Members of the University community will adhere to all state and federal laws with regard to alcohol.
Refusal to desist from prohibited conduct	Refusal of students to desist from conduct prohibited by these rules
Smoking	Smoking in an area not designated as a smoking area as defined by college rules (WAC)				Smoking in unauthorized areas.
Theft or conversion	Deprivation of another's property, including college property or services, without that individual's or the college's authorization	Attempted or actual theft of and/or damage to property of the College or property of a member of the College community or other personal or public property, on or off campus.		May include, but is not limited to, taking or attempting to take another's property – personal, public or institutional— without his/her express permission. This includes, but is not limited to, physical, electronic, and intellectual property.
Violation of published campus policies	Including, but not limited to, the academic honesty policy, the habitation policy, the sexual harassment policy, the discrimination policy, the hazing policy, and the pet policy.	Violation of any College policy, rule, or regulation published in hard copy or available electronically on the College website.	Violation of published College regulations, rules or policies. Such policies include the residence hall contract, as well as those regulations relating to the entry and use of College facilities, keys, campus demonstrations, and misuse of College identification cards.
Weapons, firearms, explosives and dangerous chemicals	Firearms and weapons, as defined by state law, are prohibited on campus. Unauthorized use, possession or storage of any explosives, dangerous	Illegal or unauthorized possession of firearms, explosives, other weapons, or dangerous chemicals on College premises or use of any	illegal or unauthorized use, possession or storage of firearms, explosives, fireworks or other weapons in violation of the College's policies on weapons and	MIBINLT the possession, wearing, carrying, transporting, or use of a firearm or other weapon, incendiary device, or explosive. Such actions are	Possession or use of firearms, explosives, dangerous chemicals, or other dangerous weapons or instrumentalities on University-owned or -controlled property, unless chemicals, substances or instruments which may be used to inflict bodily harm on another individual or damage upon college premises or at a college-sponsored event are prohibited	such item, even if legally possessed, in a manner that harms, threatens or causes fear to others.	fireworks.	strictly forbidden on University-owned or – controlled premises and/or in university and personal vehicles. This policy includes devices such as paint-ball and air-soft guns that otherwise may be considered toys. See policy.	expressly authorized by law, Board or PSU rules (for purposes of this section, absence of criminal penalties shall not be considered express authorization).

	TESC	Model	Lewis &amp; Clark	Boise State	PSU
Failure to comply		Failure to comply with directions of College officials or law enforcement officers acting in performance of their duties and/or failure to identify oneself to these persons when requested to do so.	failure to comply with the directions of College officials, including Campus Safety, acting in performance of their duties.		Failure to comply with a University Official’s requests. Students and student organizations and groups are expected to comply with and respond appropriately to the lawful requests of University Officials made in the performance of their duties. Refusal by any person while on University property to comply with an order of the President of the University, or appropriate authorized official or officials, to leave such premises because of conduct proscribed by the Code, when such conduct constitutes a danger to personal safety, property, or other appropriate University activities on such premises.
Unauthorized access/keys		Unauthorized possession, duplication or use of keys to any College premises or unauthorized entry to or use of College premises.		MIBINLT any unauthorized entry—either physical or electronic, either actual or attempted – into any University facility, building or computer system.	Unauthorized possession or use of keys to University facilities, including buildings, offices, desks, files or equipment, which includes any behavior that constitutes violation of the University’s Key Policy.

	TESC	Model	Lewis &amp; Clark	Boise State	PSU
					Unauthorized entry to or use of University facilities, including buildings and grounds.
Violation of federal, state, or local law		Violation of federal, state or local law.	Violation of any local, state, or federal law that may be reasonably expected to have a negative impact on the College or members of the College community.		Violation, or alleged violation, of any federal or state law or city or local ordinance when such violation interferes with, or is detrimental to, the mission of the University or interferes with other students' legitimate educational activities and interests. University disciplinary proceedings may be instituted against a student charged with conduct that potentially violates both the criminal law and this Code without regard to the pendency of civil or criminal litigation or criminal arrest and prosecution. Determinations made or sanctions imposed under this Code shall not be subject to change because criminal charges arising out of the same facts giving rise to a violation(s) were dismissed, reduced, or resolved in favor of or against the criminal law defendant. Conviction of a felony or misdemeanor under circumstances where it is reasonable to conclude that the presence of the person at the University would constitute a danger to health, personal safety, or property or where the offense occurred on University

	TESC	Model	Lewis &amp; Clark	Boise State	PSU
					Premises or at University Sponsored Activities.
Disrupting normal operations		Participating in an on-campus or off-campus demonstration, riot or activity that disrupts the normal operations of the College and/or infringes on the rights of other members of the College community; leading or inciting others to disrupt scheduled and/or normal activities within any campus building or area.		Riotous Acts --
Obstruction of free flow of traffic		Obstruction of the free flow of pedestrian or vehicular traffic on College premises or at College sponsored or supervised functions.			Obstruction or disruption interfering with freedom of movement, either pedestrian or vehicular, on University-owned or -controlled property.
Disorderly conduct		Conduct that is disorderly, lewd, or indecent; breach of peace; or aiding, abetting, or procuring another person to breach the peace on College premises or at functions sponsored by, or participated in by, the College or members of the academic community. Disorderly Conduct includes but is not limited to: Any unauthorized use of electronic or other devices to make an		May include, but is not limited to, any behavior that disrupts or obstructs any University activity, including but not limited to teaching, research, administration, proceedings, recreational activities, guest speaker presentations, and cultural events. It includes any behavior that causes a substantial disruption to the living or learning environment of the campus. Disorderly conduct may include disruptive noises or strong odors that can be reasonably traced to a specific individual or location, and may include

	TESC	Model	Lewis &amp; Clark	Boise State	PSU
		audio or video record of any person while on College premises without his/her prior knowledge, or without his/her effective consent when such a recording is likely to cause injury or distress. This includes, but is not limited to, surreptitiously taking pictures of another person in a gym, locker room, or restroom.		the unauthorized use of electronic or other devices to make an audio and/or visual record of any person without his/her prior knowledge and content when such a recording is likely to cause distress or injury.
Theft or abuse of computer facilities and resources		Including but not limited to: a. Unauthorized entry into a file, to use, read, or change the contents, or for any other purpose. b. Unauthorized transfer of a file. C. Use of another individual's identification and/or password. D. Use of computing facilities and resources to interfere with the work of another student, faculty member or College official. E. Use of computing facilities and resources to send obscene or abusive messages. F. Use of computing facilities and resources to interfere with normal operation of the College		MIBINLT the actual and/or attempted mistreatment, misuse, or disruption of any University computer facilities and resources, including but not limited to, those of offices, departments, colleges, and libraries. Such behavior includes but is not limited to, possessing passwords without proper authorization, spreading computer viruses, using computers to hack into computer systems, downloading or sending unauthorized or illegal materials, and allowing others to access material from your computer while utilizing university resources.	Illegal or unauthorized use or other misuse of University computer and network facilities which includes any behavior that constitutes a violation of the University Computer and Acceptable Use Policy.

	TESC	Model	Lewis & Clark	Boise State	PSU
		computing system. G. Use of computing facilities and resources in violation of copyright laws. H. Any violation of the College Computer Use Policy.
Public indecency				May include, but is not limited to, actions that are offensive to accepted standards of decency such as indecent, vulgar, obscene, profane, or offensive actions.	Public indecency, defined as exposing the genitals while in a public place or a place visible from a public place on University Premises.
Tampering with an election					Tampering with the election of any student, student organization or group.
Sexual misconduct				Defined as: 1. touching an individual's intimate areas (primary genital area, groin, inner thigh, buttocks, or breast) without or against the individual's consent and/or forcing another individual to touch an individual's intimate areas without or against the individual's consent; and/or 2. attempted or actual penetration, no matter how slight, of the genital, anal, and/or oral openings of an individual by any part of another person's body or by any object, without or against the individual's consent or under coercion. Sexual misconduct may include, but is not limited to, one or more actions of a sexual nature that: 1. is carried out without explicit consent by both	Sexual misconduct, defined as (a) unwanted sexual conduct which includes but is not limited to the exposure of one's sexual organs or the display of sexual behavior that would be unreasonably offensive to others; or (b) unwanted sexual contact of any kind, or threat of such contact, including vaginal, oral or anal sex, touching the genitalia or causing a person to touch the genitalia of another. Sexual conduct or contact shall be considered "unwanted" if no Effective Consent is given or if the student knew or should have known that the person was incapable of giving Effective Consent by reason of mental or physical impairment, mental disorder, or mental incapacitation. (i) "Effective Consent" is a voluntary, non-

	TESC	Model	Lewis &amp; Clark	Boise State	PSU
				parties; occurs under coercion; occurs with the threat of force and/or verbal abuse; occurs with the use of a weapon and/or physical force; occurs through a position of authority. Sexual misconduct can occur with any combination of genders, gender identities/expressions, and sexual orientations.	coerced and mutually understandable communication indicating a willingness to participate in a particular act. (ii) "Mental or physical impairment" refers to the victim's inability to understand the situation, understand the consequences of his/her choices, or to express his/her desires. This may include, but is not limited to being intoxicated, being under the influence of drugs, being unconscious, or other cognitive impairment (iii) "Mental Disorder" means that the person has a diagnosable mental disease or disorder that limits the person's ability to make a knowing or voluntary decision. (iv) "Mental Incapacitation" means that a person is rendered incapable of determining his or her own conduct at the time of the alleged offense because of the influence of a controlled or other intoxicating substance.
Sexual harassment				May include, but not limited to: 1. any action or statement of a sexual nature which is embarrassing, harassing, intimidating, abusive; 2. unwanted comments, communications, jokes, or requests of a sexual nature; 3. unwelcome and persistent	Sexual harassment, defined as unwanted and unwelcome sexual advances or requests for sexual favors and other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature where: (a) submission or rejection of such conduct is made either explicitly or

	TESC	Model	Lewis & Clark	Boise State	PSU
				sexually explicit statements or stories; 4. repeated use of sexually degrading words, gestures, or sounds to describe a person; 5. recurring derogative comments or questions about an individual's sexual orientation and/or behavior; 6. any kind of unwllec	implicitly a term or condition of an individual's employment or participation in a University Sponsored Activity; (b) submission to or rejection of such conduct by an individual is used as a basis for academic or employment decisions affecting the individual; or (c) such conduct has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual's academic or work performance, or of creating an intimidating, hostile or offensive educational or working environment.
Stalking				May include, but is not limited to, any intentional behavior that is directed at a specific person that frightens, intimidates, or harasses that person. Stalking may be directed toward that person or a member of that person's family. A stalking violation may be filed when a pattern of behavior consisting of two or more incidents occurs. Stalking behavior includes, but is not limited to, communicating orally, in writing, or electronically with another individual or remaining in the physical presence of the other person.	(8) Stalking, defined as repeatedly contacting another person without a legitimate purpose when: (a) The contacting person knows or should know that the contact is unwanted by the other person; and (b) It is reasonable for the person in that situation to have been alarmed or coerced by the contact. As used in this subsection, "contacting" includes but is not limited to coming into the visual or physical presence of the other person; following another person; or sending written, electronic or telephonic communication of any form to the other person, personally or through a third party.

	TESC	Model	Lewis &amp; Clark	Boise State	PSU
Harm to self or others.					Behavior that constitutes a clear and present danger to an individual(s) or to one's self on University Premises.
Violating State Higher Education Intercollegiate Athletics Policy					Violating the State Board of Higher Education's Policy for Intercollegiate Athletics as described in Section 8 of its Internal Management Directives, specifically including the subsection entitled Code of Ethics.
		Students are required to engage in responsible social conduct that reflects credit upon the College community and to model good citizenship in any community.
	These examples of student conduct code violations are not designed to define violations in exhaustive terms.
	The student conduct code does not supplant other existing policies.				