Important Dates

- Student Teaching: March 27- June 9, Spring Break with your assigned school
- Evaluation Week: June 12-16
- Graduation Rehearsal: June 14, 1:00-4:00
- Hooding Ceremony and Graduation: June 16, starting at 10:00AM

Requirements and Assignments

1. Outline of your teaching plans for the upcoming week: due the Friday before each week, share with your cooperating teacher, email to your faculty
2. Complete lesson plans for the week during full time teaching due by Monday morning of that week, share with your cooperating teacher, email to your faculty (this requirement is subject to change by your faculty supervisor on an individual basis after your first week of full time teaching)
3. Written weekly synopses of your daily reflections throughout your spring quarter experience
4. Student teaching video: an unedited video with good audio, showing you teaching one lesson, reviewed on your own by May 16 using Pedagogy Assessment Rubric parts 6-10, viewed and discussed in groups of 2-4 on May 16; also submit a 1-2 page reflection (along with your completed rubric) on "what you learned from viewing and discussing your video" on May 23. You should access the rubric at <http://www.evergreen.edu/mit/placement/studenttchhnbk.htm>, complete it on your computer, and then print it.
5. State Pedagogy Assessment Rubric (SPAR) Project (note, this replaces the EALRs Project for this quarter): Complete the written preparation associated with the State Pedagogy Assessment Instrument, described in the Student Teaching Handbook, Section 2, pages 20, 22, and 23 and 26-31 and available on the web at: <http://www.evergreen.edu/mit/placement/studenttchhnbk.htm>
The four elements of this project are: a) a description of your classroom and student characteristics, b) your instructional plan, c) rationale for your instructional plan and d) a self-assessment of your planning using the state rubrics, standards 1-5 (complete the rubric on your computer, after accessing it at the above web site, and then print it.) This project is due to your faculty as early in the quarter as possible, but no later than May 23.
6. Portfolio due to your faculty during the final week of student teaching that includes a) your lesson plans, b) weekly synopses of your reflections, c) video reflections (including state rubric with items 6-10 completed), d) SPAR project

Due Dates

- May 16: Your own video reviewed in preparation for peer review
- May 23: Written reflection on your video
- May 23 (preferably earlier): State Pedagogy (SPAR) Project due
- June 9: Portfolio
