

Mission:

to gather and
present a diverse body of work
reflecting the
beauty,
harmony, and
content of written expression

PAINTED WORD

an art show celebrating written language

We welcome SUBMISSIONS of media including, but not limited to, graffiti, poetry, illumination, photography, calligraphy, painting, sculpture, collage, printmaking, letterpress and prose in English and other languages. All symbolic languages are invited for submission.

Submissions are due November 28th by 12pm. One may submit work via internet with a JPEG image or via drop off (by appointment). An artist statement, description or statement about piece(s), and dimensions of the piece(s) must accompany one's submission. Chosen work must be ready to hang upon delivery to TESC (drop off date & time TBA). The show opens December 10 and runs thru February in the Library proper at TESC.

We intend to create a website to sell selected art works through a silent auction with artist receiving 70% of the highest bid.

Questions? Good! E-mail Abby at ricabi18@evergreen.edu

E-mail JPEG submissions (work including artist statement, description and dimensions) to: diamanth@evergreen.edu. E-mail Abby at ricabi18@evergreen.edu to arrange in-person submissions.

The students and faculty of Arts, Environment and the Child: Walking the Wheel of the Seasons are organizing this show in preparation for the 2006 Lunar New Year celebration.

Public workshops: Friday, Nov. 11, 5-7pm and Sunday, Nov. 13, 1-3pm at TESC, CAB 110