

Assignments: Essays and project materials go to your seminar leader and are always due on Friday, by 4:00 pm in the faculty's mailbox. Fiction workshop materials go to Steven; Improv materials go to Brian. Quizzes will happen on Mondays in seminar.

	Quiz* (Mondays)	Essays (due Fridays)	Fiction (due Mon & Tues)	Improv (due Fridays)	Projects (due Fridays)
1	—	—	—	—	—
2	A Void	Jigsaw Presentation (Wednesday)	M: Piece 1 T: RS 1
3	holiday	Essay 1	M: holiday T: Piece 2	Journal	(SalmonPeople)
4	Cloud Atlas		M: Piece 3 T: RS 3		Project Groups: Rationale + Covenant
5	Cloud Atlas	Essay 2	M: Piece 4 + PD T: RS 4
6	Beckett	Detailed Outline of Essay 3	M: Piece 5 + PD T: RS 5	Journal	Performance Proposal + Sketches
7	holiday	Essay 3 (Draft)	Retreat: Piece X
8	Conversions		M: Piece X, A T: Piece X , B		Final Script
9	Conversions	Essay 3 Revision for Peer Critique on Wednesday	M: Piece X T: RS X
10	* quizzes include supplementary readings	Essay 3 Final	Final Draft X in portfolio	Journal in portfolio	Rehearse: T Perform: Th

A few words about essays

For each essay assignment, we'll give you a detailed assignment description. Prepare yourself to become a careful reader who takes notes and writes thoughtful reflections on what you've read: skillful reading is the beginning of the writing process.

Here are some general, surface guidelines to follow in all of your essay work.

- no cover pages, no folders, etc.
- double-sided printing, black ink on white paper
- staple papers in upper left corner
- 1.5 line spacing
- conventional typeface, 12 pt.
- 3/4" - 1" margins all around
- before turning in an essay, proofread it for grammatical and surface errors; make changes as needed
- use complete sentences
- use a standard and consistent model for citation, even for program texts; see MLA guidelines for examples of good citation practices

• header includes: Name, seminar faculty, name of assignment (e.g. "Woolf Essay Revision"), date of submission, meaningful title of essay

Here is a useful website for citations and a wide variety of writing issues: <http://owl.english.purdue.edu/owl/resource/557/02/>