

The Seattle Environmental Film Festival: January 21-22, 2005

The Mountaineers has teamed up with Hazel Wolf Environmental Film Network to host the Seattle Environmental Film Festival (SEFF) on January 21-22, 2005 at The Mountaineers (located at 300 Third Ave. W., Seattle 98119). SEFF will be a two day film festival, open to the public, to explore the magic and power of utilizing film to spread environmental messages and encourage environmental activism. Documentary films from around the world, covering a wide array of topics such as agriculture, consumerism, activism, global warming, pollution, etc., will be shown. Workshops focusing on cost-effective production of environmental media will also be offered.

Film Festival Schedule:

Friday, Jan. 21	6 - 10 p.m.	Film Session 1
Saturday, Jan. 22	10 a.m. - 12 p.m.	Two Concurrent Media Workshops ~ Free
	12 - 1:30 p.m.	lunch break
	1:30 - 5 p.m.	Film Session 2
	5 - 6:30 p.m.	dinner break
	6:30 - 10 p.m.	Film Session 3
	10 p.m. - 12 a.m.	Celebration with the Band Creeping Time!

Tickets are $15 for a single session, $25 for the Full Day Saturday, and $40 for the Full Festival. Mountaineers member, student and low income rates are also available. Tickets are available in person through The Mountaineers Bookstore (located at 300 Third Ave. W., Seattle 98119) or by calling 206-284-6310. Visit www.hazelfilm.org for film information. Contact Fatima Oswald with questions at 206-284-6310 x3029 or fatimao@mountaineers.org, or visit www.mountaineers.org.

The Mountaineers 2005 NW Environmental Issues Course: February 2 - April 6, 2005

Become a fully informed environmental advocate for the Northwest by taking the Mountaineers Northwest Environmental Issues Course. This course provides lectures and optional field trips designed to provide participants with the tools and awareness that they can use to protect the natural resources of the Northwest. Students examine the often conflicting interests of forests, agriculture, wildlife, green economics, global warming, transportation, activism and more --through lectures by local environmental experts, group discussions, and other activities.

The course runs from February 2 to April 6, 2005. Lectures will be held Wednesday evenings from 6:30 to 9:00 p.m. at The Mountaineers (located at 300 Third Avenue West in Seattle, 98119). Course cost is $45 for members of The Mountaineers and $50 for non-members. A $10 discount is available for students and seniors. Participants who sign-up in pairs each receive $5 off. Combinations of discounts are not acceptable. Registration for single lectures is also available for $7 for Mountaineers members and $8 for non-members.

Register online at <http://imis.mountaineers.org/source/aTrips/TripRegister.cfm?Event=3955> or call 206-284-8484 to register by phone. For more information please contact Fatima Oswald at 206-284-6310 x3029 or fatimao@mountaineers.org.