

Chart of the Virtues and Vices

Work and the Human Condition: Fall 2008

This is reconstructed from Book II, Chapter 7.

Feeling or activity	Virtue	Vice of excess	Vice of deficiency
Fear	Bravery	Cowardice	(nameless)
Confidence	Bravery	Rash	(nameless)
Pleasures and pains	Temperance	Intemperance	Insensibility
Giving money (small amounts)	Generosity	Wastefulness	Ungenerosity
Taking money (small amounts)	Generosity	Ungenerosity	Wastefulness
Giving & taking money (large amounts)	Magnificence	Ostentation, Vulgarly	Stinginess
Honor & dishonor	Magnanimity	Vanity	Pusillanimity
Small honors	(nameless)	Honor-lover	Indifference to honor
Anger	Mildness	Irascibility	Inirascibility
Truth-telling	Truthfulness	Boastfulness	Self-deprecation
Pleasures in amusements	Wit	Buffoonery	Boorishness
Pleasures in daily life	Friendliness	Ingratiation, Flattery	Quarrelsomeness, Ill-temper
Propensity to shame	“prone to shame”	“excessively prone to shame”	“no sense of disgrace”
Pleasure & pain concerning neighbors	Proper Indignation	Envy	Spitefulness