

Some interview questions—not in any order--

- How has your life (personal/community) shaped your work?
- What drives her in her work—to do this work?
- What got you into this work? Why do you continue to do it?
- What do you see as the value of the work in the world?
- How does this work define, help structure the community?
- What does the work mean to her/him?
- How/What is the work as a heritage, how is does it move across generations? –its transmission.
- What are the positive and negative aspects of the work? What are the effects on the work?
- What led you to this work?
- What do you find stressful/frustrating about the work?
- What do you need to know how to do to engage in this work? How did you learn it?
- How has the work changed from when you started?
- How would you describe your job/work?
- What do you enjoy doing outside of your job?
- How has this work changed you?
- What shaped your ideas about work?
- Tell me about how you started to do this work—