Please send this back to us as soon as possible after your first class meeting.

If you notice any students missing from the list (or on the list, but not attending), we'd like to hear from you right away. You may return this form to us through intercampus mail, by delivering it to the Registration and Records office during open hours or through the after hours drop box outside our doors, or by scanning the completed form and attaching it to an email to registration@evergreen.edu.
